

Antiques Auction

20 – 80+

OVER
DINNER

INDOOR

Enormously entertaining for either a client reception, after conference entertainment or an employee evening event. This activity sees guests taking part in a high stakes auction, where each of the lots are items donated by some of the world's leading antiques experts (or rather clever replicas).

Our experienced auctioneer will chair the event with the aid of several lovely assistants, creating an evening that's guaranteed to live long in the memory, as well as inspiring and delighting all those taking part.

The activity starts at pre dinner drinks, with a meet and greet from our auctioneer and his team, offering a chance to wander around and view the lots up close.

The auction takes place over dinner (between courses), with all tables allocated equal amounts of fake money, but it doesn't usually finish that way...

The winners are the table that spot the real from the fake and therefore end up with the largest bank balance.

This package includes:

- Auction lots and all associated equipment
- Themed auctioneer/compère to host the evening
- Client branded auction catalogues
- Auctioneer meet and greet at pre dinner drinks, with each lot on display
- Themed support staff
- Prize for the winning table
- PA/sound coverage (if required)
- All pre event planning and preparation – any paperwork used to be branded with client logo
- Transport/Delivery/Setup/Return
